

Journal Title	Group	Issue	Article/Comment
Links and Chains (32 pages)	Liverpool Genealogy Society	June 2025 # 140	- History timeline of Catholic Church from First Fleet to 21st Century (including mention of Mary McKillip being excommunicated for inciting her sisters to disobedience and defiance. She was exonerated the following year) - Family history of George Frederick MULLINS 1857-1938 Centred around London and Yorkshire Mentions Henry Ward WALKER (who was charged and imprisoned for 6 months hard labour for attempting suicide); Mary MOTTRAM; Richard MOTTRAM; Thomas VALENTINE; Elizabeth TRICKETT; Maria ANTHONY; Isabella aka Minnie ALTON nee ALTON; Tate and Son Sugar Factory - Colin Sharp McLAWS and Glasgow Southern Necropolis ~ 1839 – 1863 Terrible state of burials for the poor using pits which were not covered until full Mentions William and Jane GILMORE; Mr McGILASHAN; Mr W.T.EDMISTON - National Archives of England – Ministry of Defence (MOD) service records project MOD have begun transferring 10 million personnel records to National Archive – Navy, Army and Air Force. Should be complete by 2026. Only MOD service records of individuals with dob over 100 years will be published.

			Ancestry will publish the records in phases b/w 2024 and 2026 - Deaths in Liverpool (NSW) Camp 1915 – diary of medical orderly - conditions of hospital and the diseases and conditions of soldiers including many deaths from Measles. These men did not survive the camp and did not get to serve overseas Michael HAYES; Percy PEACHEY; many other names mentioned - Beginners Corner – “Relationships and their historical meanings” and “Old Terminology and Relationships” e.g. in-law in early America and cousin in 17th and 18th Century The lesson is language changes - Naming patterns Cultural or familial - specific traditions or conventions English; Welsh; Irish; Scottish; German and other - Liverpool Regional Museum Exhibition of photographs from Fairfax media archive 1960-1990 Exhibition 8 April to 6 September 2025 - Top 8 Family Tree Builders of 2025 - State archives news Probate packets – more than 163,000 packets for 1982-1988 have been added to State archives collection A first nations webpage has been added to the NSW State archives to improve access
--	--	--	---

			Land and Building cards - containing details of railway property for lease or sale Ancestry and State archives added an index with digital images of selected records re immigration 1838-1887. These may hold extra information than that of passenger lists List of useful web sites including South Africa; Wales; 19th Cent. English prisons; Welsh tithe maps; Dutch Migration records and more
The Stonequarry Journal (22 pages)	Picton and District Historical and Family Society	June 2025 #40	- John EDWARDS 1841-1931 and family - Richard EDWARDS and family - William Henry NORMAN - Fred and Margaret BROWN - History of "St Mary's Towers" at Douglas Park built by Sir Thomas MITCHELL (NSW Surveyor General) in 1841-2 extended by Dr Richard JENKINS once called "Park Hall". MITCHELL worked with Caroline CHISHOLM and leased land to BEATTY; BROWN; WYTHES; COCKROFT and SHOFFIELD families - History of Arthur HAHN and brother Stanley – came to Bargo in 1955. Both worked on radio and Arthur was known as "Bimbo" in a popular children's show. - Avon Dam Road construction for Avon and Nepean Dams ~1919 – 1935 - Charles MOOREHEAD – Storekeeper of Thirlmere

			• They have released a database called “Wollondilly People” – a compilation of people with links to Wollondilly Shire • List of what’s new on Ancestry - Liverpool, New South Wales, Cemetery Registers, 1820-1995 records from cemeteries in Liverpool, New South Wales, Australia, dated between 1820 and 1995. - Penrith NSW, Valuation Books and Miscellaneous Books, 1871-1966 property valuation records for the city of Penrith, NSW, Australia, dated between 1871 and 1966 - About Queensland, Australia, Aboriginal War Census, 1915-1916 an index from records pertaining to Aboriginal people and Torres Strait Islanders from Queensland between 1915 and 1916 - About South Australia, Australia, Various Records of First Nations Peoples, 1934-1954 records concerning First Nations Australians from South Australia between 1934 and 1954. The collection contains two types of records: certificates providing exemption from the Aboriginal Act of 1934 and handwritten registers originally kept by the Department of Social Welfare and Aboriginal Affairs.
--	--	--	---

			- Scotland's Places will be switched off on 24th June 2025, however users will be able to access the materials directly from each of the contributing bodies: HES (Historic Environment Scotland) material can be found on trove.scot NLS (National Library of Scotland) material can be found at nls.uk and maps.nls.uk - NRS (National Records of Scotland) records will be at scotlandspeople.gov.uk
Kith and Kin (20 pages)	Cape Banks Family History Society (Little Bay area)	June 2025 #157	• Coast Hospital article by Geraldine de KORTE (nee Crowe) • Detecting clues in photographs • Family article – Walter Roy FISHER; Ella FISHER (nee WARREN); Colin FISHER; John Ernest FISHER; Roy McIntyre WARREN; Arthur Little WARREN; Mary WARREN (nee ROBERTSON) • Restitution of conjugal rights 1916 - 1920 Case of Albert NEVILLE and Alice MITCHELL Judge HARVEY ordered Alice to return home and she was ordered to provide a certificate of compliance – she did not comply Alice married Samuel MANKEY and Albert married Mary EVANS. Albert and Mary divorced because of Albert's adultery with Mrs Edith ALBERT • Sister Mary Eizabeth HAMMOND 1904 – 1970

			Teaching nun in the Gilbert Islands, now Kiribati – article of her taken POW by Japanese and her escape Guest speakers: • Claire BADDELEY spoke of Joseph Thomas BARRACLUFF – ostrich farmer 19th century Sydney • Robert SMITH – Captain James Cook and other early explorers • Marilyn ROWAN – Mining the NSW BDM
Irish Roots (31pages)		Issue 134 Summer edition 2025	• Irish Genealogical Research Society (IGRS) annual journal – academic articles re archives and Irish history • Newsletter – biannual - family and local history now available on website with a consolidated names index – issues 1982-2016 • IGRS database of recorded lectures Membership costs 26 pounds p.a. • Using the DIPPAM archive (Documenting Ireland: Parliament, People and Migration). Includes: • Enhanced Parliamentary Papers on Ireland • The Irish Emigration Database (1,000s of personal letters and documents mainly focused on North America and Australia) • Voices of Migration and Return oral history archive • AI for Genealogy – article listing useful tools for genealogists • County Westmeath – located in the middle of Ireland. Lists where to look for information.

			Mentions: BALLESTY; BRENNAN; CURRIE; CURRY; CARBERY; COLLEY; DALTON; DELAMERE; DILLON; FAGAN; HEDIVAN; HEDUAN; LEDWICH; L'ESTRANGE; MacAULEY; MacGEOGHEGAN; MULLEADY; NUGENT; O'DALY; O'FLANAGAN; O'GROWNEY; O'MELAGHLIN; PAKENHAM; PLUNKETT; POLLARD; SCALLY; SCULLY; SEERY; TIERNEY; TUIE; TYRRELL They offer assistance to people seeking ancestors from Westmeath • The National Famine Way – 165 km of walkway/cycleway commemorating the forced emigration of 1847 at the height of the Irish Famine • Family story of James; Richard and Laurence KEOGH • 4 helpful hints (free websites) for tracing your family tree • List of Facebook listings from HALLY to MacFADYEN (previous issues for A to H) and using Facebook Genealogy Groups • National Archives of Ireland's major overhaul of 1901 and 1911 census database furore has subsided. New burial records and newspapers have been added. • RootsIreland.ie – new baptism; marriage and school records • FindMyPast, Ireland Huguenot Histories – French Protestants came to Ireland 16th to 19th Century - searchable by name. • 1832 – 1836 papers – licences granted to individuals to hold weapons (none Catholic)
--	--	--	---

			• Skibbereen Heritage Centre (County Cork) 20,000 new Graveyard database records – free access skibbheritage.com • Free online guide for family historians – genealogy-toolkit.com • Australian Irish Connections – explorer Robert BURKE; surgeon Denis CONSIDEN; Christopher ALLINGHAM; Sylvester BROWN/E; Daisy BATES (aka Margaret O'DWYER) • Guinness Brewery Personnel records – show a strong social and economic responsibility See: https://www.guinness-storehouse.com/en/discover/your-story.
--	--	--	---