

| Journal Title | Group                 | Issue                  | Article/Comment                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|---------------|-----------------------|------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Timespan      | Nepean Family History | Issue 179June 2025 | The story of the family of Lawrence Thomas FOLEY – transported in 1823 and Margaret Mary SULLIVAN – transported in 1828 They married in June 1828 and had 10 childrenBy 1840 Lawrence had partnered with Thomas CUNNINGHAM who was killed by bushrangers  The story of a Prussian émigré – Christian UEBEL * Using AI to write the biography of Jane JONES and Joseph REEVES. Also, the tale of Johanna CROWLY (nee KEEFE) beaten to death by her husband who was subsequently acquitted * Guest speaker – Noeline KYLE – author of the book Mothers,, Matrons and Lady Superintendents – Women working in NSW prisons 1788 – 1969 *Member trip to Armidale – recommending UNE Regional Archives and on to the AFFHO Conference(The Australasian Federation of Family History Organisations Inc. (AFFHO) is the umbrella organisation for family history societies in Australia and New Zealand). The next conference is in 2027 in Wellington NZ Article on DNA and the Shared cM Project  Penrith Catholic Schools report for 1911 (prize winners) * Guest speaker – Michelle CORIN author of “The Secret Suburb Lapston * Extracts from the Nepean Times April to May 1925 * Article on the pioneers of Gunnings * List of Cootamundra District pioneers” |

|                       |                                            |                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|-----------------------|--------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Golden Links          | Bendigo Region                             | Issue 149April, MayJune 2025 | *Celebrating the Red Ribbon Rebellion – said to be the birth of Australian Democracy and precursor to the Eureka stockadeRefers to opposition to the increase in the miner's tax and the Govt's eventual backdown                                                                                 |
| Murrumbidgee Ancestor | Wagga Wagga and District                   | Issue 145June 2025               | *Article re Doris GOLDER (nee SCOTT)*My Huguenot Ancestor – Elizabeth REYNELLS – married John CROSTHWAITE*The Konrad DALLINGER story – a pioneer of Albury                                                                                                                                    |
| Argyle Bulletin       | Goulburn District                          | Issue 105August 2025             | *Extracts from the Goulburn Evening Penny newspaper – July 1872; Jan 1973; Feb 1973; Sept 1864 (flood)*Story of the first bushrangers – Bayley, Flanagan and Brown in 1825 who were also involved in a mutiny in 1826 on their way to Norfolk IslandArticle re Bannaby gravesites of pioneers |
| Kith and Kin          | Little Bay area                            | Issue 158Sept 2025               | *Discovering a convict in an unusual way – useful hints*Sydney's North Shore transport system*History and restoration of Abbotsford House ( near Five Dock )                                                                                                                           |
| E journal             | Swan Hill Genealogy and Historical Society | Issue 162Aug 2025                | *Article on John IKIN family of Swan Hill*WW1 Campaign Medals nicknamed Pip, Squeak and Wilfred                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| E journal             | The Mallee Stump                           | July 2025                            | *John OXLEY reflections of The Bland in 1817 (West Wyalong District)*Bland Shire Council History                                                                                                                                                                                                  |